OFFICIAL PRIMARY VOTE

Returns as Certified by Canvassing Board of City.

NO CHANGES IN THE TICKETS

Fred Schroeder Beats Fred Schamel by Seven Votes in Republican Councilman Race in Seventh Ward.

After a delay of nine working days the canvassing board Friday completed its work and certified to the official returns of the city primary election. Few errors were found, notably a change of five votes in the democratic mayoralty contest, which gives Mayor Dahlman five more than a 2 to 1 vote over Colonel Berryman, and a change of one vote in the republican councilmanic contest in the seventh ward, which gives the nomination to Fred Schroeder by seven votes over Fred Schamel.

Nelson C. Pratt, republican nominee for city attorney, is high man on the republican ticket, receiving 4,388 votes, but J. E. Hummel, nominee for the council from the eighth ward, received the largest majority—7,288 more votes than his nearest competitor.

On the democratic side C. O. Lobeck, re-nominated for city comptroller, is high man. He secured 4,388 votes, with no competition. Where there was competition, Dan B. Butler, renominated for city clerk, secured the heaviest vote. This was 3,773. Mr. Butler also secured the largest plurality, which was 2,688 over his competitor.

The socialists cast a light vote. Their candidate for mayor, C. C. Vaughn, received seventy votes, the high mark, and other candidates on the ticket received all the way from sixty-six to sixty-nine votes.

The official vote, as canvassed by the board, composed of the mayor, city clerk and city treasurer, is as follows:

Republicans.

For Mayor—John P. Breen, 3,118; Arthur W. Briggs, 30; Harry Frost, 13; Henry E. Palmer, 1,483; Harry B. Zimman, 2,612; K. Greenleaf, 2,266; Beecher Higby, 2,260; Greenleaf's plurality, 40.

Third Fast Train on Rock Island

Through Service from Chicago to Denver to Be Increased Middle of May.

About May 15 the Rock Island will put in service a third through train between Denver and Chicago, making three fast through trains a day each way through Omaha.

In the meanwhile several smaller changes in the time card have been made, effective April 18. Train No. 14, which now leaves Omaha 8:15 p. m., will leave twenty minutes earlier and arrive in Chicago twenty minutes earlier. It will leave Omaha at 8:08 p. m. Train No. 7, the Rocky Mountain Limited, will leave Omaha at 11:12 instead of 11:17 a. m., five minutes earlier than usual. When the new time card is put in effect this train will pick up a sleeper, which will be made up at Omaha and passengers may enter the sleeper at 9 o'clock. The name of the new train is to be the Mountaineer.

Notes of the Army

Major D. E. McCarthy, chief quartermaster Department of the Missouri, has called for proposals for the annual supply of mineral oil and gasoline for the several military posts of the department. The bids will be opened May 19 at the office of the chief quartermaster in Omaha.

Company H, Sixteenth Infantry, left Fort Crook Friday for the Ashland rifle range to put it in readiness for the target practice season. A battalion of that regiment will follow April 13 for thirty days' target practice.

The three days' practice marches for the troops of the Department of the Missouri will begin next Monday. Each company will be required to take a three days' hike. These practice marches will be continued each Monday during the season until all the companies have performed their march. The general big practice marches will not begin until after the big military tournament at Des Moines next fall.

DAVIS GETS IT IN THE TEETH

Bridges and Jackson Hurl Back His Charge of Tightwad.

SAY NEVER WERE ASKED TO PAY

Councilmen Go Deeper Into Their Family Quarrel and Show How United Democratic Party Now Is.

And still these democratic brethren do dwell together in peace and harmony. Councilmen Bridges and Jackson deny the statement of Councilman Davis that they were asked to contribute $5 each to a councilmanic campaign fund before the primary election.

Bridges says that he spent more money during the last three years "for the good of the party" than any other councilman, and Jackson says that in a meeting of the councilmen when the "slate" was made up he told them that unless the administration was given credit he would "cut loose and go it alone."

"The other councilmen had that record all fixed up to give me one else credit for the three years' work but themselves," said Jackson. "I objected to this and said that the heading should read: 'The Administration Record,' not the 'Record of the Council.' They wouldn't stand for it; they wanted all the credit; and I told them that they couldn't bank on me, but that I would cut loose and go it alone. And I did. No one ever asked me for a cent and I never heard of this campaign fund until I read about it last night."

Bridges is just as wrathful as Jackson and in reply to Dr. Davis' accusation that all he (Bridges) ever does is to "second motions put by Harry Zimman," the republican member, says that that is more than Davis has done.

"Harry Zimman has made a good councilman and I am not ashamed of having stood with him on a number of occasions," said Bridges. "But be that as it may, I think I have done about as much in the council as the member from the Eighth ward."

"I didn't know there was any 'slate' and was not asked to pay into a campaign fund. I needed no assistance from the other councilmen; I knew that I could be renominated easily on my record, and I spend but a very little money."

RAILWAY MEN'S CLUB STARTS

Omaha Gets Pointers from Kansas Cityans, Who Come Up to Give Them.

W. A. McGowan, president of the Railway Men's club of Kansas City; W. E. Farrott, chairman of the entertainment committee of the same club, and J. L. Maren, a prominent member, arrived in Omaha Friday morning to meet with the officers of the local Railway Men's club to give them some pointers.

The Omaha Railway Men's club starts with the brightest of prospects. Its membership is up to the expectation of the promoters and new members are constantly being received. The new quarters on the first floor of the Barker block are now being fitted especially for the club and will be most handy. They are located not only in the very heart of the city, but they are connected with dumb waiters with Robertson's cafe and the buffet or the alley.
